

Year R Learning Journey

Week beginning: 12th November 2018

Next week our topic will be:
Traditional Tales

We will be starting our traditional tales theme with Jack and the Beanstalk. We will be planting our own beans in Busy Fingers. During Discovery Time we will be seeing if we can build the giant's castle and we will be measuring and ordering different beans that Jack has grown. In maths we will be learning about addition. We will be building on our learning of 1 more and will be adding different numbers.

Please remember:

We have parents evening on Tuesday 13th November and Wednesday 14th November.

Home Challenge

To read the story of Jack and the Beanstalk. Can you retell some of the story to your family and friends? Can you draw or act out parts of the story at home?

Jack and the beanstalk

Once upon a time there was a boy called Jack. He lived with his mother. They were very poor. All they had was a cow.

One morning, Jack's mother told Jack to take their cow to market and sell her. On the way, Jack met a man. He gave Jack some magic beans for the cow.

Jack took the beans and went back home. When Jack's mother saw the beans she was very angry. She threw the beans out of the window.

The next morning, Jack looked out of the window. There was a giant beanstalk. He went outside and started to climb the beanstalk.

He climbed up to the sky through the clouds. Jack saw a beautiful castle. He went inside.

Jack heard a voice. "Fee, Fi, Fo, Fum!" Jack ran into a cupboard.

An enormous giant came into the room and sat down. On the table there was a hen and a golden harp.

"Lay!" said the giant. The hen laid an egg. It was made of gold. "Sing!" said the giant. The harp began to sing. Soon the giant was asleep.

Jack jumped out of the cupboard. He took the hen and the harp. Suddenly, the harp sang, "Help, master!"

The giant woke up and shouted, "Fee, Fi, Fo, Fum!" Jack ran and started climbing down the beanstalk. The giant came down after him.

Jack shouted, "Mother, help!" Jack's mother took an axe and chopped down the beanstalk. The giant fell and crashed to the ground. Nobody ever saw him again.

With the golden eggs and the magic harp, Jack and his mother lived happily ever after.
