

Year R Learning Journey

Week beginning: 21st January 2019

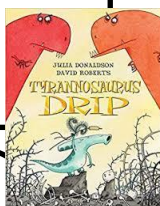

Next week our topic will be:

Dinosaurs

In maths this week we are going to be learning all about adding. We will be using all our maths knowledge to solve problems.

Special Jobs this week is going to be looking at 'Under the Sea' dancing. We will be learning to listen to the music and change our movements based on that.

We are going to be writing our own dinosaur stories based on Tyrannosaurus Drip in Writing Rally this week remembering to use our capital letters, sounds, finger spaces and full stops.

Please remember:

To bring in your letter confirming whether or not your child can come on our trip to the Sea Life Centre.

Words of this week:

but come saw

Sounds of this week:

ear air

How you can help at home:

- ✓ Use this website to look at pictures from lots of different countries all around the world. You can talk about which one is your favourite and why.
