

Year R Learning Journey

Week beginning: 13th January 2020

Next week our topic will be:

Under the sea

Next week the children will be learning about a book called 'Commotion in the ocean' (poetry) We will be listening to the story, and introducing 'WOW' words 'stripy fish, huge puffer fish'. In maths we will be looking at telling the time (o'clock and half past) In phonics we will be learning 'ss' and 'j. 'ss' for miss, kiss,

Please remember:

BOOKBAGS need to be in school EVERYDAY so we can read with your child. Please make sure you are reading every night with your child at home.

How you can help at home:

- ✓ Practise name writing with your child often.
- ✓ Help your child recognise their numbers up to 20 and beyond.
- ✓ Please read with your child as much as possible. Talk about the front cover first; what do the children think the story might be about? Then talk about the pictures before you read the words. What can you see? What do they think might happen next? Search for the keywords 'the' and 'to'
- ✓ When you are walking to school, can you practise counting to 10? Can you practise counting to 20?
- ✓ Watch the poetry of 'Commotion in the Ocean.'

Home Challenge

Can you make your own fish? You can draw a fish and use lots of colours. Can you use different materials to make a colourful fish?
